Section 4: Design statement

Write a statement outlining your opinion on how graphic design can be used to improve society or your community. (Maximum 250 words.)

Section 5: Folio Submission

Submit a folio of three (3) different pieces of your original and completed graphic design work.

- 'Completed' means there is a definite outcome/product, or it was made to demonstrate skill or interests related to graphic design. It is essential that at least one piece uses typography & layout, and there is a demonstrated use of design software.
- Each piece should have a small selection of process work (approx. 1 page), showing how it was made or developed.
- Each piece should also include a short summary describing the idea in the design, target audience and the design choices (eg. technique, media) you applied to achieve the outcome (40 words maximum per piece).

The folio should demonstrate your design, problem-solving and technical skills and include:

- A range of resolved design concepts and project outcomes.
- 2D or 3D design ("2D" can be any flat surface graphic, layout or illustration. "3D" can be packaging or digital).
- Typography (text formatting or experimentation with type).
- The use of graphic design industry software, eg. Adobe CC suite or similar.
- Freehand or digital drawings or illustrations.
- Creative use of design elements (eg. colour, texture, composition, etc).

Submit your folio as:

- A single PDF (maximum size 10MB). Include the page number, your full name, and application number on each page.

OR

- Provide a URL to your folio (please provide password if applicable). All images must be contained and visible on one webpage.
